

The Protestant Chapel Community at the University of Rochester

DINNER DIALOGUES

Each Wednesday we gather downstairs in the Chapel for a FREE home-cooked meal and a lively conversation. These weekly gatherings are among the favorite times we have together at PCC, where we get to know each other, eat good food, and have some of the best, funniest, and most thought-provoking conversations you'll have in your college careers! This is the place where every question is welcomed, and every opinion adds to the wealth of the conversation. College is about growing, stretching, and learning – and you'll do all at "DD."

Mark your calendar for the first Dinner Dialogue:

Where: Commons Room, 2nd floor of Interfaith Chapel

Food: FREE home-cooked food

Date: Wednesday, September 1 (the 1st day of classes)

Time: 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. (come late or leave early if you need to—no worries!)

(Please see other side for information on Sunday worship)

Worship

Are you...

United Methodist?

Presbyterian?

Episcopalian?

Baptist?

UCC?

Lutheran?

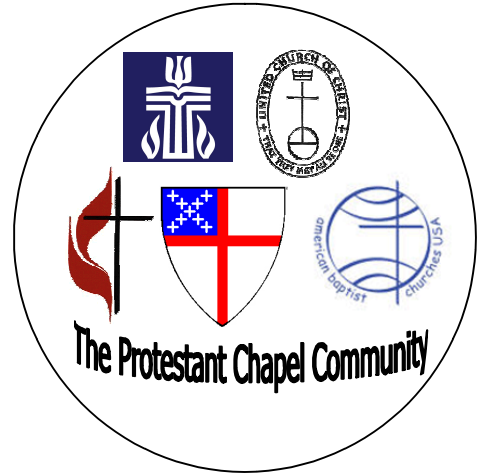

RCA?

None of the above?

Not sure?

Just looking?

Wondering if the gospel has anything to say that's relevant to your life?

Whether you're a Christian, or aren't sure if you are, or just want to find out more about it, we hope you'll join us for Sunday worship at PCC. You'll find it's a place where the music is terrific, the sermons are intellectually stimulating, the community is supportive, and everyone is welcome.

Please come and visit us – we're confident that once you do, you'll find yourself coming back Sunday after Sunday.

When: Sundays at 5:00 p.m. (you don't even have to get up early!)

Where: Sanctuary of the Interfaith Chapel (across the quad from the library)

Clothes: as casual as you'd like to be - we're respectful, but informal
